

Follow through you can see.

Teachers bring Social and Emotional Learning (SEL) into the content they already teach. School and district leaders see how it is going, week by week, and recognize the teachers doing the work.

ROSETHREAD CONNECT
rosethreadconnect.com

Accountability teachers can trust.

Teachers asked for follow-up. Too often, SEL training happens once and fades. RoseThread Connect gives leaders simple follow-up and a way to recognize the teachers doing the work. It is built for support, not evaluation.

- 1 We set you up
Your school or district gets a code and leader access.
- 2 Teachers plan and confirm
They say when they'll teach each activity, then confirm with one tap after class.
- 3 Leaders do the follow-up
See trends school by school, read shared reflections, and send shout outs.

PBIS for Adults: Recognition Built-In

Teachers earn milestones for the activities they confirm teaching. Leaders send a shout out with a suggested note in one click, and teachers see it on their own page.
